

Memorandum of Understanding between Hohai University, China
and Sinnar University, Sudan

1. Preamble

In accordance with the mutual desire to foster cooperation between Hohai University, China and Sinnar University, Sudan, and in order to explore the potential for collaboration in the areas set out below, the two institutions agree to enter the following Memorandum of Understanding.

2. Areas for Potential Collaboration

Based on the principles of mutual benefit and agreement, both institutions intend to explore opportunities for collaboration in the following areas:

- (a) Movement of students between the two institutions at both the undergraduate and graduate level either for short-term academic visit or for an academic degree.
- (b) Movement of faculty, scholars and staff between the two institutions for the purposes of teaching courses, research collaboration, and exchange.
- (c) Development of joint curriculum which will meet each institution's requirements for an academic degree both at the undergraduate level and the graduate level so that students from one institution can earn two degrees, each from one institution;
- (d) Research collaboration in the fields with mutual interest between research staff, professors, departments, and schools of both institutions, including but not limited to the establishment of joint research centers, joint application for research funds, joint implementation of research projects, joint publication of academic papers, and jointly organizing international conferences and seminars on mutually agreed research topics.
- (e) Exchange and sharing of teaching and academic materials, publications, reference and other pertinent information.

3. Implementation of Memorandum

Both institutions agree that specific projects and activities shall be developed for implementation of this Memorandum based on discussions and negotiations between the two institutions. Agreements or contracts shall be signed separately to carry out these projects and activities.

Both institutions agree that all financial arrangements shall be determined on the basis of specific projects and activities, and will depend on the availability of funds.

This Memorandum comes into force as soon as it has been signed by the two institutions. The Memorandum will remain in effect for an initial period of five years or until one party gives the other a written notice of termination one month in advance. Both institutions will review the terms of the Memorandum one month before the expiry of the five-year term with a view to negotiating a further agreement on terms acceptable to both.

This agreement has been made in the English language in two identical copies, one for each institution.
